

J. Rufus Fears

F E L L O W S H I P

OCPA's J. Rufus Fears Fellowship develops young leaders in public life; equips them to stand up for free enterprise, limited government, personal responsibility and individual initiative; and perpetuates the memory of Oklahoma's greatest scholar.

- Meet successful leaders from politics and business
- Learn the principles that lead to human flourishing
- Join this growing network of emerging leaders

The Oklahoma Council of Public Affairs is forming a Fears Fellowship group in Oklahoma City, beginning January 28, 2023. The fellowship is for young conservative leaders ages 18-35. All materials and activities are provided to participants at no charge.
