

SOUTHWEST COVENANT SCHOOL

ELEMENTARY DRESS CODE

“Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of you that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one mind striving side by side for the faith of the gospel” (Philippians 1:27)

“The word conversation includes the whole course of our life and behavior in the world. The Greek word signifies the actions and the privileges of citizenship. Thus, we are commanded to let our actions, as citizens of the New Jerusalem, give glory to the gospel of Christ. The gospel is very simple. There should be a simplicity about our manner, our speech, our dress, and our whole behavior. This is the very soul of beauty.”

Charles H. Spurgeon

SWCS Dress Code Guidelines

Our philosophy of dress is designed to provide an atmosphere conducive for education. The desire of this policy is to honor the Lord with a neat, clean, and modest appearance that provides a distraction free environment for students. Also, we recognize our school is both a training center for future job placement and a source of reinforcement for the values espoused in a Christian home environment. A sensitivity to and awareness of appropriate dress is an important aspect of any individual's social and spiritual maturity.

Therefore, our dress code is not in place as legalistic rules but are designed for a quality educational environment. Yet, the following Scriptures provide some guidance:

“Even in your youthfulness, be a great example of those around you in your speech, conduct, love, faith and purity.” (I Timothy 4:12). Do not live (or dress) in a way that others look down at you and lose respect for your Christian testimony.

“Your beauty should not come from outward adornment, such as braided hair and the wearing of gold jewelry and fine clothes. Instead, it should be that of your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in God’s sight.” (I Peter 3:3-4). God desires for us to place more emphasis on maturing the inner person than on decorating the outside.

“A woman must not wear men’s clothing, nor a man wear women’s clothing, for the Lord your God detests anyone who does this.” (Deuteronomy 22:5). God does not condone the unisex look. Instead, He desires it to be obvious from our appearance that men are men and women are women.

“I also want women to dress modestly, with decency and propriety...” (I Timothy 2:9) and “Do not cause anyone to stumble...” (I Corinthians 10:32). All of us should dress with modesty and decency so that we do not draw another person into sin by the way we dress.

“So whether you eat or drink or whatever you do, do it all for the glory of God.” (I Corinthians 10:31). Our desire should be to glorify God in the way we dress.

Specific Dress Code Guidelines for the Elementary School

- I. The following dress code will be observed by all SWCS elementary students at school. Any questions regarding specific attire should be directed to the principal or classroom teacher prior to wearing the clothes to school. Clothes should be tried on before coming to school to make sure they meet school guidelines. Enrollment at SWCS indicates a willingness and commitment by students and parents to abide by the letter and the spirit of the dress code. Parents are expected to personally uphold the dress code at school and on field trips.
- II. Teachers will be responsible for enforcing the dress code and the school office will contact parents to take immediate corrective action in the event the dress code is violated. Any students dressed contrary to these regulations (except on specified days) will result in a parent being called to bring correct clothing for the student.

11. Smart watches are not permitted.

C. Additional Guidelines

1. Be sure that your child is dressed for the weather. If the weather meets our guidelines, we will have recess. Please make sure they have a heavy coat, hat and gloves in their backpack on winter days.
2. Students should have their names on all clothing and possessions. This will help locate them in the event of their loss.
3. Certain symbols are inconsistent with and incompatible to the philosophy of SWCS. Therefore requirements regarding apparel with symbols, pictures, slogans, etc., must conform to the following guidelines:

Permissible:

Southwest Covenant School
Christian themes
Colleges and universities
Personal monograms

Geographic locations
Sport themes
Numbers
Nature

Not Permissible:

Harry Potter
Witches, Ghost, Halloween, etc.
Philosophies such as signs of the zodiac, peace symbols, etc.

The principal will make final determination as to the appropriateness of any attire.

D. Preschool and Kindergarten Dress Code Adjustments

- We allow athletic shorts in pre-k and kindergarten for easy bathroom access. They must still meet the length requirement.
- We encourage clothing that will meet their active day.
- Please pack an extra set of clothing in their backpack daily.
